

Planetariums and Society

"We Are Guardians", full-dome movie on our global environment by NSC Creative Facts and figures are a prerequisite for scientific analyses. Making the result of the analyses understandable is a major subject of planetarium presentations today. Databases and image data are visualized in the planetarium to show developments that affect all of humanity. Among other things, planetariums help to convey man-made climate change in both a rational and an emotional way.

